Ladies of the Maccabees.

DEAR EDITOR:—It is with pleasure that I notice the name of our esteemed friend and townsman Mrs. J. C. Holden mentioned as a candidate for the office of Great Record Keeper of the Lady Maccabees, and I do not hesitate to say that she would fill the office with credit to herself and profit to the order.

If she is elected to the office it bespeaks harmony and success to the order, efficiency and promptness in all its correspondence, and kindness and courtesy to all who may have to transact business with the office.

And right here it would be in order to say a few words concerning her past history. In 1875 while she was not yet half way through her teens I first became acquainted with her where she was teaching school in Ontario on a second class certificate. After teaching school for a number of years she took a course in the High School, after which she entered Denill college at Oshawa from which she graduated with honors and afterwards taught in the same college for several years. She took special courses in Phonography and became an expert stenographer which enabled her to take a position in a large wholesale and retail firm in Scranton, Pa., where the correspondence was very large. After remaining with the firm for two years she accepted a less arduous and more lucrative position as stenographer to a law firm where she soon became noted and spoken of as one of Scranton's best stenographers. Professor Wood learning of her ability engaged her first to teach the evening school in Stenography and he soon appointed her principal of the day and evening school. For to use the Professor's own words "She was an excellent teacher and had good executive ability." This position she held for a long time.

She has educational fitness and executive ability and is pre-eminently fitted for such a position as Great Record Keeper. She is upright and honorable and has a noble Christian character. Good sister delegates vote for Mrs. Holden, of Yale, or Newsted Bros. for St. Clair county, as they own and control the said counties.

Yours Truly,
DR. A. MITCHELL.

Something Good.

It has been fully demonstrated in the short time that the Lightning Butter Maker has been before the public, that it is just "the right thing in the right place". It meets the approval of all who see it. It is so simple in construction and perfect in action that any one can see there is nothing to get out of repair and will last a life-time. The price is merely nominal and butter makers save time and labor enough in a very short time to pay for the dash. Anyone wishing one of the Lightning Butter Makers who live in Sanilac county will please call on or address John Collins, of Yale, or Newsted Bros. for St. Clair county, as they own and control the said counties.
